

Chiropractic Oath

I do hereby (swear or affirm) before these assembled witnesses / that I will do my utmost / to keep this oath / as a graduate of Western States Chiropractic College. /

I will light the way to the understanding of those natural laws / which preserve the human body, / as a fitting temple for the soul of man. /

I will keep the physical, mental and spiritual needs of the sick as my foremost duty, / ever searching for and correcting the cause of their disease to the best of my ability. /

I will at all times stand ready to serve my fellow man, / without distinction of race, creed or color. / I will prevent and alleviate human suffering, / I will exemplify a pattern of living in harmony with the laws of nature. /

With purity I will pass my life and practice my art. / I will refrain from any act of wrong-doing. / I will regard the keeping of a patient's confidence as a moral obligation. / I will at all times consider the patients under my care as of supreme importance. / I will not spare myself in rendering them the help / which I have been taught by my alma mater. /

May the skillful use of my hands be so directed. / that I may bring strength to the sick, / relief to the suffering, / peace of mind to the anxious, / and the inspiration to mankind, to attain bountiful health, / health, / that we may live this life / to the fullest expression of its innate endowments. /

I, / _____, there solemnly (swear or affirm) / to uphold these principles and precepts, / to the best of my ability. / (So help me God) /.
